Reminder on Data Protection

These are classed as confidential papers, and in line with the BSB's policy on data protection, please ensure that:

- the pdf of these papers is deleted from your personal computer, and any other device, as soon as it is no longer required. If any material contains personal data, then this should be shortly after the meeting has taken place;
- the hard copy papers are disposed of securely. The BSB has facilities for this so please either leave the papers with us or use an alternative and suitable means (eg shredding or Chambers confidential waste).

Note:

If you lose any hard copy or electronic personal data provided by the BSB or send BSB related material by email to the wrong recipient, please report this immediately to us.
